

Spencer

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johns of 3512 Nottingham, Houston, Texas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to Mr. Terrell Spencer, principal of the Monticello High school, the wedding to be solemnized in a beautiful double ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, on Sunday, August 9. Members of the bride's family and a few intimate friends will be present for the wedding at six o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Kathleen Johns, sister of the bride, will serve as maid of honor and Mr. Spencer will have as his best man Mr. Phillips Brooks of Houston, Texas.

The announcement is of unusual interest at many points in Mississippi and Texas. Miss Johns, a former student at the State Teachers College of Hattiesburg was graduated with honors by the Texas State College for Women. She is a member of Alpha Chi, National Honorary Scholastic Sorority and has won recognition for her excellent art work and in the field of writing.

Mr. Spencer, who for the past two years has been the efficient principal of the Monticello High school, graduated in 1934 from the State Teachers' College at Hattiesburg. During his years in college he was prominent in all campus activities. He was president of the senior class and served at one time as editor-in-chief of the Student Printz, college paper. His parents live at Moss Point. He has had graduate work at Duke University. Since coming to Monticello he has made a wide circle of friends. His bride will be cordially welcomed here.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer will have a honeymoon trip to Galveston and New Orleans and on their return will be at home to their friends in Jackson at 758 North West street until August 26. After that time they will make their home in Monticello at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Selman. Mr. Spencer will again serve as principal of the High school and Mrs. Spencer will also be a member of the high school faculty. During this summer Mr. Spencer has been employed in Jackson by the State Highway Department.

SPENCER-JOHNS

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johns of Houston, Texas, announce the engagement and approach of their daughter, Marjorie, to Mr. Terrell Spencer of Moss Point and Monticello, Miss., which will take place at the home of the bride on Sunday afternoon, August ninth, at six o'clock.

Mr. Spencer is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Spencer of this city and the above announcement will be read with interest by his numerous friends in this city.

Miss Johns Is Wed To Terrell Spencer In Texas Ceremony

MONTICELLO, Aug. 11.—A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized at 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, August 9, at Houston, Texas, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johns, when their accomplished daughter, Miss Marjorie Johns, became the bride of Terrell Spencer, principal of the Monticello high school. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas W. Summers, rector of St. Stephen's church in Houston. Members of the bride's family and a few intimate friends were present.

Attendants were Miss Kathleen Johns, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Phillips Brooks of Houston, best man.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Spencer left for a wedding trip to Galveston and New Orleans. On their return they will be at home in Jackson at 758 North West street. After August 26 they will make their home in Monticello, where both are members of the school faculty.

The bride, a former student at State Teachers college in Hattiesburg, was graduated with honors from the Texas State college for Women and has won recognition in the fields of writing and art. She is a member of Alpha Chi, national honorary scholastic sorority.

The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Spencer of Moss Point, is a graduate of State Teachers college and a candidate for his master's degree at Duke University. He has been principal of the local high school for the past two years and has been employed in Jackson this summer by the state highway department.

Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Spencer, who since their honeymoon trip following their marriage in Houston, Texas, on August 9, have been in Jackson, came to Monticello this week and are pleasantly located in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Selman. Both will be members of the Monticello school faculty. Mr. Spencer again serving as principal of the High school and Mrs. Spencer to serve as a grade teacher. They are receiving a cordial welcome at Monticello. Their marriage was of unusual interest among their wide circle of friends.—Monticello Press.

9/4/36 - mtd ad

PREACHING

A generation ago, Sunday school was trained to remain, and ices, but today it is disdren leave the church at make the point, the per much for the children. they are in school for al out recess. They attend for longer periods.

One may well say, the of such language, and children do not underst may note children of p age, asleep in service.

The question arises, w in simple language to t each month. Certainly enjoy and benefit by s tians leave the church dressed to the unsaved and inspiring to them, do personal work in wi

Are not children wort than older ones, by re can render service, ar tender, and can be mor One finds these days tl win a soul of mature life to the Lord Jesus. ings held here this y saved. Not a grown pe

Why should we not in the most fruitful fi value of a whole life i of life of a person in l if when children they they may never be wor yond before maturer y

This is an earnest consider the importanc and appealing to childr the children attend th will so preach, that chi

As this is brief, and might be said, suggest our pastors, write what to encourage and inspi faithful service in pre children.

Oct. 8, 1936

Moss Point, Miss.